SERGIO TACCHINI AND JOHANNA HO: FASHION FOR TENNIS

Milan, July 2017: The Italian sportswear brand Sergio Tacchini has signed a precious collaboration with Hong Kong born and London based fashion designer Johanna Ho for a female tennis line.

Curvature is the name of the line, a synonymous for femininity and soft lines, which has been designed for Roland Garros 2018. Johanna Ho is a passionate tennis player, and in creating this line, she harnessed her great love for both the sport and fashion. Lines are sinuous, the full, feminine volumes and the elegance of the garments make this line special. Haute couture meets tennis, creating a highly feminine, unconventional line, with stylish yet unobtrusive detailing, such as the little frills on the culottes, the wide pleats in the dress and the beautiful little girl's dress, collegiate in style and highly elegant in its clean lines. The fabrics are high quality and stylish too, with nylon crepe and a jacquard mesh to name just two. The colours are pink, very feminine, blue with pink details, to enhance the classic elegance, and total white, Wimbledon-style.

This line will be available in the best tennis stores and on the online store of the brand starting from Spring 2018. ST Team female tennis players will wear this line in occasion of the Grand Slam tournament Roland Garros 2018.
