SERGIO TACCHINI ANNOUNCES THE 2014 INTERNATIONAL TEAM

Milan, January 2014 – It's the start of a new year and the Italian brand famous for its sportswear and smart leisurewear has announced a new team of top-level tennis players.

Sergio Tacchini colours are back on the tennis courts for the Australian Open and are being worn by prestigious players such as Tommy Robredo, Daniel Gimeno and Igor Sijsling.

After taking a break for a couple of seasons, Sergio Tacchini is pleased to announce the return to the team of the excellent Spanish player Tommy Robredo, who has been a huge fan of the brand for many years. He is currently number 18 in the world ATP rankings and played in some extremely high level matches in the final few months of 2013. Both parties are excited about working together and there have always been excellent relations between the Italian brand and the athlete from Barcelona.

Spanish player Daniel Gimeno currently ranks 77th in the ATP ranking and is a new name for Tacchini. The brand is setting its sights on the player from Valencia in a bid to help him go up in the rankings and reach a higher position.

Dutch player Igor Sijsling is in 73rd position and the brand hopes that he too will be able to go higher and become one of the best.

Gilles Muller from Luxembourg has been playing in ST for some years now. He joins the team along with young Spanish player Enrique Lopez, French player Laurent Rochette and young, up-and-coming Italian players Edoardo Eremin and Stefano Napolitano.
